

MIMOS PARA TUS OJOS

Title

#VIENTOSDEPAZ – Winds of peace

Description

Let our skies be dressed in colours!

The activity invites to make kites that transmit a message of peace, through their shape, design or with a message of peace written. It is preferable to fly them in a public place, all together, so that you can create a harmonious show and a positive impact on more people.

"You there where you live, and me from here, the same wind will embrace us...".

The initiative is promoted by Mimos para tu Ojos in close synergy with Living Peace International .

Receivers

Children, young people and adults from schools, youth groups and associations.

Targets

- to reflect on values that promote peace
- to improve manual skills
- to develop creativity
- to foster links of trust and reciprocity among participants
- to link peace promotion with physical activity
- to develop notions of geography

Activities

- 1- To promote a reflection on a value linked to peace: empathy, generosity, to be the first to love, listening to the other, respect...
- 2- Formation of pairs to prepare together a kite of peace remembering what emerged during the reflection, choosing together the size, the theme, the colours, the shape...
- 3- To discover together (depending on the age of the participants) what determines the flight of the kite
- 4- Together with the group choose the place and the day to fly the kites

Publish the initiative in social networks with the hashtag #VIENTOSDEPAZ.

Timeframe

There are no deadlines, it will depend on the period of the year in which favourable winds are present.

If you join this initiative send us photos and videos of your activity to share with the entire network of Living Peace International!
